Master of Laws in Comparative Legal Studies Thesis (LAW 801C; 6 Credits).

Master of Laws in Environmental Law Thesis (LAW 801; 6 Credits).

*This student has completed a writing project under my supervision. The student satisfies each of the requirements below, and is thus entitled to the LLM writing credit for his or her writing project.
(Please check the box next to each requirement to confirm that it was satisfied.)*

The student provided a draft of the work to me for comment.

The student completed a final version that was responsive to my comments.

The final version demonstrates an appropriate level of legal research and analysis.

The final version is well-organized and clearly written.

The final version is at least 25 double-spaced pages, exclusive of footnotes, or, if not, it provides a sufficiently thorough and detailed analysis of the topic.

The final version is in the form of a scholarly article or in the nature of a legal memorandum or brief.
