This is a comprehensive, but non-exhaustive, list of conferences, job fairs and job banks that may be of interest to you. Additional opportunities may be posted on Symplicity, circulated via email or listed on: PSJD.org (http://www.psjd.org/Public_Interest_Career_Fair_and_Events_Calendar).

General

AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION LAW STUDENT DIVISION CAREER FAIR
Every August, location varies
The Career Fair, which takes place in conjunction with the ABA Annual Meeting, provides an opportunity for firms and agencies dedicated to the future of the legal profession to reach out to over 600 law student leaders from across the county. The program is structured as a table-talk event, providing employers the opportunity to speak one-on-one with law student attendees, finding the ideal candidates for their summer and associate positions. For more information go to http://www.americanbar.org/groups/law_students/events_competitions/calendar.html

Public Interest

ANNUAL PUBLIC INTEREST CAREER RECEPTION AT NYC BAR ASSOCIATION
Late August/Early September - NYC Bar Association, NY
Law students from 23 area law schools have the opportunity to meet informally with representatives from many metro-New York area public interest and public sector organizations. This is a great opportunity to learn about potential employers for the summer and other volunteer opportunities. For more information contact the Public Interest Resource Center at Fordham Law School at pirc@law.fordham.edu.

EQUAL JUSTICE WORKS CAREER FAIR
Every October in the Metro DC area
Sponsored by NALP and Equal Justice Works, this Fair is held every October and “provides a unique opportunity for over 1,200 students and graduates from over 200 participating law schools to collect information and interview with recruiters from civil rights organizations, consumer and environmental advocates, government agencies, legal services offices and other representatives of the public interest law community.” (1L’s cannot interview at this job fair, but can participate in table talk for networking purposes.) Students and alumni interested in participating in this job fair must register with the PILC. A list of participating employers to whom you must write directly to request an interview at the Fair can be found at www.equaljusticeworks.org. The PILC will pay the law school registration fee; no fee is charged to students. Students are responsible for travel expenses to Washington, DC; however, limited travel assistance is available from Equal Justice Works. Pre-registration opens in mid-August on the EJW website. For more information, see www.equaljusticeworks.org or the PILC.

NYU PUBLIC INTEREST CAREER FAIR
Every February - NYU Law School, NYC
This two-day fair will be held in early February at NYU Law School in NYC. This fair gives employers the opportunity to meet with students and allows students to interview with employers for internships and permanent jobs, as well as to talk with employers at information tables. In addition to public interest organizations, District Attorneys’ offices and other public sector employers participate in the program. In 2013, more than 2,400 law students and representatives from over 200 organizations attended the Fair. Pace Law School and about 20 other northeastern law schools participate in the Fair. Resumes and choice sheets must be submitted by each student to employers selected via a special URL that will be provided to students in December by PILC. Students will be able to access employer information and submit resumes directly to employers through this special URL. Registration will be due in December. For more information, go to http://pilcfair.law.nyu.edu/
The program is sponsored by the Consortium of Northern California Law Career Services Offices of several California law schools and OneJustice and held every winter. (Note that formal interviews are limited to students of sponsoring schools – Pace is not a sponsoring school; meet the advocates (tabling) is open to all students/alumni of any school). For more information, visit http://www.one-justice.org/pips. Over 700 students and 100 public interest employers participate. Past participating advocates have included (among others): AIDS Legal Referral Panel, California Appellate Project, Center for Food Safety, Disability Rights Education & Defense Fund, California Coastal Commission, California Public Utilities Commission, Earthjustice, Housing and Economic Rights Advocates, Environmental Law Foundation, and Sierra Club.

ANNUAL ROBERT M. COVER PUBLIC INTEREST RETREAT
Winter - Peterborough, NH
Every winter, public interest law students, professors, and practitioners gather at this Retreat to network, strategize and socialize. Information about the Retreat can be found on the Yale Law School website. http://www.law.yale.edu and https://www.facebook.com/coverretreat

ANNUAL PUBLIC INTEREST ENVIRONMENTAL LAW CONFERENCE
Every February/March - Eugene, OR
The Public Interest Environmental Conference takes place every March and is an annual gathering for environmentalists worldwide, and is distinguished as the oldest and largest of its kind. The four-day conference historically unites more than 3,000 activists, attorneys, students, scientists, and concerned citizens from over 50 countries around the globe to share their experience and expertise. The Conference is organized solely by the volunteers of Land Air Water (LAW), a student environmental law society, and is sponsored by Friends of Land Air Water (FLAW), a non-profit 501(c)(3) organization. The Conference includes over 125 panels, workshops, and multi-media presentations addressing a broad spectrum of environmental law and advocacy. Topics include: forest protection and ecological restoration, grazing and mining reform, labor and human rights, air and water pollution, Native American treaty rights, globalization and "free" trade, environmental justice, corporate responsibility, marine wilderness, international environmental law, water rights and dam removal, oil and gas litigation, genetic engineering, and urban growth. For more information see www.pielc.org.

Diversity

BOSTON LAWYERS GROUP – STUDENTS OF COLOR JOB FAIR
Every August/September – Boston, MA
The Boston Lawyers Group (“BLG”) hosts a Job Fair in Boston for law students of color (rising 2Ls) every August, registration opens in April. The deadline to register for the fairs is typically in early July. Students can register on https://law-blg-csm.symplicity.com/students. Interviews for summer associate positions in the Boston area are based on employer pre-selections and lottery selections. For more information, visit the BLG website at www.thebostonlawyersgroup.com, and click on Events.

COOK COUNTY BAR ASSOCIATION MINORITY JOB FAIR
Every August – Chicago, IL
The CCBA Job Fair primarily is designed to obtain summer associate positions for rising 2Ls (current 1Ls) during their second summer in law school. Student registration begins in April/May. For more information, visit http://www.cookcountybar.org.

DELAWARE MINORITY JOB FAIR / PHILADELPHIA AREA DIVERSITY JOB FAIR
Every August - Widener University School of Law, Wilmington, DE
This Fair is sponsored by the Delaware State Bar Association and local legal employers for first-year or second-year minority law students who are interested in practicing in Delaware. Advanced registration (in May) via Symplicity is required. The Delaware Minority Job Fair differs from many other job fairs in that students must be invited to attend rather than simply registering and showing up. In return, the students invited receive considerably more individual attention than is possible in a very large job fair. When you submit an application for an invitation, you are, in effect, submitting an application to all of the Delaware legal employers who participate in the program. While minority students are the focus, all interested students can apply. Representatives from large, small and medium Delaware law firms, as well as public sector employers, including federal, state and local government, participate in this Fair. The Fair also provides an opportunity for students to learn about diversity in Delaware. The CCPD will circulate information in November. Please contact the Career Services Center at Widener (302-477-2163) or e-mail career.development@law.widener.edu for more information.
DUPONT MINORITY JOB FAIR
Every August – Wilmington, DE, Houston, TX and Los Angeles, CA

HEARTLAND DIVERSITY LEGAL JOB FAIR (HDLJF)
Every August – Kansas City, MO
The HDLJF is the result of Kansas City’s leading law firms, together with legal organizations, coming together to encourage law students from diverse backgrounds to practice law in Kansas City, MO. The HDLJF is designed to expose law students of diverse backgrounds to both the traditional and non-traditional legal employer. Current year graduates, students who will be returning to school in August and those graduating in May are eligible to attend the job fair, as employers will be interviewing for both summer and post-graduate positions. The job fair is free for students. Each year, Kansas City plays host to nearly 60 students from over 30 Law Schools from across the nation who have the opportunity to interview with over 15 area law firms, organizations and government agencies. Early bird registration usually ends in late May. Students can register on-line at https://law-kcmba-csm.symplicity.com/students and find more information about the Job Fair at http://www.heartlanddiversity.org.

HISPANIC NATIONAL BAR ASSOCIATION ANNUAL CONVENTION
Every August – Location varies

The student application form is due in the spring preceding each fall job fair. Please note: there is no general registration in the fall or on-site at the Job Fair. For further information contact the Black Law Student Association at Pace Law School, or visit the National Black Law Students Association at www.nblsa.org.

NORTHWEST MINORITY JOB FAIR
Every August – Seattle, WA
The job fair provides employers with an opportunity to interview applicants from national and local law schools while offering law students a forum to interact with both potential employers and fellow students. The event is sponsored by a group of private and public sector employers. Student registration begins in July. Over 150 students attend, the majority of which are in their second year. Interviews are scheduled by lottery. Job Fair participants are also encouraged to attend the Fair luncheon featuring a local guest speaker. Please see website for more information www.NWMJF.org.

REBELLIOUS LAWYERING CONFERENCE
February – Yale Law School
The Rebellious Lawyering Conference is an annual gathering of law students, activists, and legal practitioners dedicated to legal work in the service of communities and social change movements and to challenging hierarchies of race, wealth, gender, and expertise within legal practice and education. Grounded in the spirit of Gerald Lopez's Rebellious Lawyering, the conference has been held for over twenty years and is the largest student-run public-interest law conference in the U.S. Registration is usually opens in mid-December. Registration is $30 and includes a happy hour on Friday and lunch on Saturday. (Registration is free for Yale, Quinnipiac, and UConn law students, and New Haven residents.) For law students wishing to attend who may otherwise find hotel costs prohibitive, the conference tries to coordinate housing with Yale Law student volunteers. See http://www.yale.edu/reblaw/ for more information.

ROCKY MOUNTAIN DIVERSITY LEGAL CAREER FAIR
Every August/September - Denver, CO
This Fair takes place every year, with registration via Symplicity available from April to June. Legal employers attending the RMDLCF “seek to hire law students and [recent] graduates from culturally diverse backgrounds that have been traditionally under-represented in the practice of law in the Rocky Mountain region, including law students and [recent] graduates who are ethnic or racial minorities and/or gay or lesbian.” The Rocky Mountain Diversity Legal Career Fair allows legal employers to interview - at one time and in one location, second-year, third-year, and recent law school graduates. “The goal of the fair is to promote a format that enables employers, including law firms of all sizes, major corporations, public interest organizations, the judiciary, and federal, state and local government agencies, to meet a diverse group of law students and recent law school graduates and to facilitate efficient hiring.” Interviews will be granted through a prescreening process as well as by invitation during the event at the employers' option. Over 20 area employers participate. For more information, go to http://www.rmdlcf.com/
THE ST. LOUIS DIVERSITY JOB FAIR
Every August – St. Louis, MO
