If you are thinking about Small Firm Practice as an area of concentration, you are preparing for internships or permanent placements in the following settings:

- Solo or small firm practice environment

You may do any of the following in practice:

- Operate a general practice, providing services across a range of practice areas
- Operate a practice focused on serving individual or small business clients in a particular specialty, such as criminal defense, immigration law, matrimonial law, or real estate
- Manage the business affairs of a law practice

You should take the following Law School courses:

- Accounting for Lawyers
- Advanced Professional Responsibility
- Interviewing, Counseling, and Negotiation
- Law Practice Management

You should take the following course at the Lubin School of Business:

- MBA 642-Marketing Management

You should pair this concentration with a concentration in Civil Litigation/Dispute Resolution, Criminal Practice, or Business Law

You should take at least 3 of the following courses covering subject matter that you should expect to see in small firm practice:

- Bioethics and Medical Malpractice
- Civil Rights Litigation
- Drafting Legal Documents
- Employment Law
- Estate Planning
- Insurance Law
- Interviewing, Counseling and Negotiation
- Land Use
- Matrimonial Practice
- Products Liability
- Real Estate Transactions and Finance

You should consult with the following faculty regarding this concentration: Anderson, Fasulo