Climate Change Litigation and Insurance Coverage: Practical Tips on Understanding This Emerging Set of Issues

Co-Sponsored with the Pace Environmental Law Program

Pace Law School, Moot Court, Law Library
Thursday, May 23  6 – 8:00 pm

Instructor:
Pace Law School Adjunct Professor, John Nevius, Esq., ‘96, P.E., Shareholder, Anderson Kill & Olick, P.C.

Clients need to understand how their environmental activities mesh with liability and property insurance, particularly when it comes to environmental professionals and Directors and Officers. Pollution exclusions are pervasive, but some are more absolute than others. Second, the duty to defend when toxic torts or other “environmental” claims are alleged, can be invaluable.

Registration Information:
Pre-registration Required - No Charge for this event. First Come/First Seated.

CLE: 2 Skills Credits