DOCTOR OF LAWS

SENATOR ELIZABETH WARREN

UNITED STATES SENATOR FOR MASSACHUSETTS

Senator Elizabeth Warren is a fearless consumer advocate who has made her life's work the fight for middle class families. She was elected to the United States Senate on November 6, 2012, by the people of Massachusetts.

Sen. Warren is recognized as one of the nation's top experts on bankruptcy and the financial pressures facing middle class families. She is widely credited for the original thinking, political courage, and relentless persistence that led to the creation of the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau. President Barack Obama asked her to set up the new agency to hold Wall Street banks and other financial institutions accountable, and to protect consumers from financial tricks and traps often hidden in mortgages, credit cards, and other financial products.

In the aftermath of the 2008 financial crisis, Sen. Warren served as Chair of the Congressional Oversight Panel for the Troubled Asset Relief Program. Her independent and tireless efforts to protect taxpayers, to hold Wall Street accountable, and to ensure tough oversight of both the Bush and Obama Administrations won praise from both sides of the aisle.

Sen. Warren was a law professor for more than 30 years, including nearly 20 years as the Leo Gottlieb Professor of Law at Harvard Law School. The graduating class at Harvard twice recognized her with the Sacks-Freund Award for excellence in teaching. She taught courses on commercial law, contracts, and bankruptcy and wrote more than 100 articles and 10 books, including three national best-sellers, A Fighting Chance, The Two-Income Trap, and All Your Worth. National Law Journal named her one of the Most Influential Lawyers of the Decade, Time Magazine has named her one of the 100 Most Influential People in the World four times, and she has been honored by the Massachusetts Women's Bar Association with the Lelia J. Robinson Award.

Sen. Warren is a graduate of the University of Houston and Rutgers School of Law.

For her dedication to the law, for her commitment to public service, and for her inspiring example to others both within and outside the legal profession, Pace University is honored to confer upon Sen. Elizabeth Warren the degree of Doctor of Laws, honoris causa, with all the rights and privileges pertaining thereunto.

HONORARY DEGREE CITATION

DOCTOR OF LAWS

BRUCE H. MANN

PROFESSOR OF LAW, HARVARD LAW SCHOOL

Professor Bruce H. Mann is an American legal scholar and legal historian who has been teaching at Harvard Law School since 2006, where he is the Carl F. Schipper Jr. Professor of Law. He teaches courses in American legal history and property. His research focuses on the relationship among legal, social, and economic change in the American Revolutionary era.

Professor Mann's academic career includes visiting or permanent professor positions at Washington University in St. Louis, University of Connecticut School of Law, University of Houston Law Center, University of Texas School of Law, University of Michigan Law School, University of Pennsylvania Law School, and Princeton University. He has received five teaching awards—one at Washington University and four at the University of Pennsylvania, including the university-wide Christian R. and Mary F. Lindback Foundation Award for Distinguished Teaching.

Professor Mann is the author of Republic of Debtors: Bankruptcy in the Age of American Independence (2002), which received the SHEAR Book Prize from the Society for Historians of the Early American Republic, the Littleton-Griswold Prize from the American Historical Association, and the J. Willard Hurst Prize from the Law and Society Association. He is also the author of Neighbors and Strangers: Law and Community in Early Connecticut (1987) and multiple articles published in law reviews and history journals. He is the co-editor of the book The Many Legalities of Early America (2001). He is a Fellow of the Massachusetts Historical Society, an elected Member of the American Antiquarian Society, and a past president of the American Society for Legal History.

Professor Mann is a graduate of Brown University. He received his JD, MPhil and PhD from Yale University.

For his distinguished contributions to the legal profession, for his ongoing dedication to academic excellence, and for his unwavering commitment to legal education, Pace University is honored to confer upon Professor Bruce H. Mann the degree of Doctor of Laws, honoris causa, with all the rights and privileges pertaining thereunto.
