

Justice Lubell is a Justice of the Supreme Court in Westchester County and is the Supervising Judge of Matrimonial Matters in the 9th Judicial District. Justice Lubell graduated from Fordham University in 1977 and prior to entering law school in 1991, Justice Lubell had an extensive and successful business career in sales and senior level corporate management. While attending law school he had also interned for the NYC Office of the Corporation Counsel and the Office of the Nassau County Attorney specifically handling tort and civil rights litigation. Upon graduation and admission to the New York and New Jersey bars, Justice Lubell spent his career as a trial attorney litigating complex medical malpractice, products liability and aviation disaster cases. He continued this role until his election to the Supreme Court in the 9th Judicial District bench in November, 2005. Prior to his election Judge Lubell served as the Acting Village Justice in Ardsley from April, 2003 until taking his position on the Supreme Court Bench in January, 2006. He was then assigned to Orange County Supreme Court until June, 2006 when he was transferred back to Westchester County and assigned to the Matrimonial Part handling strictly matrimonial matters until January, 2009, when he was reassigned back to Orange County as a full time IAS judge handling all civil matters and trials. In January 2011, he was transferred to Putnam County where he sat in an IAS trial part and was been appointed by the 9th Judicial District Administrative Judge as the reserve Civil Trial Judge for the Supreme Court for the 9th Judicial District handling civil trials throughout the district. In January, 2016, Judge Lubell returned to Westchester County where he currently sits in a Civil Trial Part and has assumed the role of Supervising Judge for Matrimonial Matters for the 9th Judicial District with responsibility for all matrimonial and Post Judgment matters. Judge Lubell is also a Fellow of ASTAR (Advanced Science and Technology Adjudication Resource Center) and NCSI (National Courts and Science Institute) which provides advanced scientific training to the judiciary nationally. He continues to actively lecture at CLE's, lectures at Judicial Training classes and participates in Moot Court and mock appellate arguments and trials for various law schools
