

“THE DEFENSE PERSPECTIVE OF A MEDICAL MALPRACTICE CASE”

- I. Our Initial Evaluation of your Notice of Claim/Complaint.
 - A. SOL Issues, Continuous Treatment Issues, Affirmative Defenses, The Merit or Lack thereof based upon the Complaint, Counsel and our own Investigation.
- II. Discovery
 - A. Paper and Examinations Before Trial
 - B. Physical Exams
 - C. Social Media
 - D. Our Investigation
- III. Jury Selection & Opening Statements
 - A. Plaintiff tells the prospective jurors his/her client doesn't want sympathy.How I deal with that fallacy.
 - B. Exposing my adversary's opening statement.
- IV. How to Prep my Physician Client and Experts
 - A. Mock Trial Cross.....my invention, now the norm.
 - B. Witness Prep Services.....Are they worthwhile?
- V. My Cross of Your Experts and Client
 - A. Preparation.....What is out there? How can I know it before I put the expert on the stand? How can I use it effectively to the best advantage. (See Transcripts of Nocera Trial Testimony of both Plaintiff and Expert)
- VI. Summations
 - A. Why it was written well before you spoke it in the Courtroom.
 - B. Wish I had the Last Word and what I can do about it.
- VII. A word about COVID-19 and its effect on our litigation world. (See our White Paper and Update)

Alfred P. Vigorito, Esq.
Vigorito, Barker, Patterson, Nichols & Porter, LLP
115 E. Stevens Avenue, Suite 206
Valhalla, New York 10595