

FRANK KELLY BIO:

Frank Kelly is a proven leader of large complex organizations. Able to manage diverse tasks across multiple functional areas. Strong analytical and personal relations skills. Able to build cohesive, mission focused teams. Oriented towards goals and continuous improvements. Renders executive level expert legal advice

Frank tries and appeals complex high exposure cases including personal injury, medical malpractice, wage and hour, employment discrimination, automobile crashes, workplace accidents, falls on property, scaffold collapses, ladder accidents, tripping accidents, harm from defective products, securities arbitration and mediation, injuries from prescription medications, nursing home and hospital negligence, injuries at vacation resorts and hotels, civil and constitutional rights violations, and a host of other kinds of cases where people get hurt or are wronged.

He is generally the lead responsibility for Employment Practices in litigation and negotiation for Federal and Local Government and in private sector practice. Collective bargaining negotiations, grievances, PERBs, NLRB, MSPB hearings.

Frank creates Employee Handbooks , performs internal investigations and compliance programs.

He works on Federal and Government Contracting, including bid, RFP and contingency contracting for government and private clients.

Frank also works on the budgeting for taxing authority and municipal services

He has taken many verdicts in various Courts and venues throughout the United States.

Frank continues to manage and mentor peers and junior attorneys.

He always tenders timely and accurate legal advice to senior leaders for strategic planning and tactical reaction.

Frank creates and manages organizations, systems and project budgets.