

A Week of Events: October 7-11, 2013

Monday, October 7, 2013 6-8:30 p.m. (Tudor Room)

Diversity Tipping Points -- Discussion and Reception

Join students and faculty for a panel discussion about diversity and inclusion tipping points in our communities, locally, nationally and internationally.

A reception, including a Spoken Word performance, will follow the discussion.

Tuesday, October 8, 2013 4-6 p.m. (O-02)

Film - Freedom Riders

Come see this powerful film about the brave young men and women who used non-violent resistance in 1961 to expand the community of people who were permitted to use public facilities with dignity, in the Jim Crow south.

Wednesday, October 9, 2013 6-8:30 p.m. (Tudor Room)

NYSBA - Courtroom Conduct and Networking Reception

A panel of practicing attorneys and judges will discuss appropriate courtroom conduct. This program will be followed by a networking reception. This will be a great opportunity to meet practicing attorneys and judges

Thursday, October 10, 2013 6-8:00 p.m. (O-01)

Know Your Rights

A representative from the National Lawyers Guild will give the audience an overview of basic “street law” rights.

Friday, October 11, 2013 12:00 - 2:00 p.m.

Pizza and dessert pot luck - wrap up and informal lunch

Please join us for pizza and bring a dessert to share that represents your culture or family tradition.

All events are sponsored by Pace Law School's Office of Diversity Initiatives. Wednesday's event is co-sponsored by the NYSBA. Refreshments will be served at all events.
