

Steven Silverberg

Steven Silverberg, a former “Top 50” law firm partner, represents developers and municipalities in land use, zoning and environmental law matters, including litigation and appeals in New York and Federal Courts. He has processed land use applications and the related SEQRA review for site, plans, subdivision, special permits and variances for all manner of projects.

A former town attorney, village attorney and adjunct associate professor of law, Steve has written and lectured on land use, zoning and municipal law issues. Previously, a member of the Board of the Westchester Municipal Planning Federation and chair of the Village of Piermont Planning Board, Steve received the 2012 Distinguished Service Award from the Rockland Municipal Planning Federation. He Blogs on Municipal Law topics at the New York Zoning and Municipal Law Blog <http://blog.szlawfirm.net/>