

David W. Barr

Roosevelt & Cross Inc.

Mr. Barr joined Roosevelt & Cross in February, 2019. He has spent the past 20 years focused exclusively on the underwriting and issuance of tax-exempt and taxable municipal securities. Starting his career with the New Jersey Housing and Mortgage Finance Agency as a Bond Analyst, Mr. Barr has grown his practice through increasingly successful positions at CIBC World Markets, Commerce Capital Markets, TD Securities, GATES Capital and Piper Jaffray. Mr. Barr brings the experience and market acumen developed through the management of over $2.0 billion in municipal securities to his not-for-profit, governmental and independent sector clients.

Mr. Barr received his MBA degree from the Zarb School of Business at Hofstra University and his BS degree in Applied Economics from Hofstra University. He presently serves a Board Member of the WellLife Network and is a frequent speaker at numerous industry conferences. Mr. Barr holds FINRA Series 7, Series 53, and Series 63 securities licenses.
