

Madeline Fletcher

NYS Homes and Community Renewal

Madeline Fletcher is the Director of Distressed Asset Preservation for NYS Homes and Community Renewal where she works to bring resources to underserved housing across New York State. Prior to her role at HCR, Madeline served as the founding executive director at Newburgh Community Land Bank. Before relocating to the Hudson Valley, Madeline worked as a land use attorney and urban planner in New York City. Madeline holds a BS from Cornell University, a JD from Brooklyn Law School and an MUP from Hunter College.