

William West

Elisabeth Haub School of Law, Pace University

William West is a 3L at Pace Law, pursuing specializations in Environmental, Real Estate, and Land Use Law. At Pace, he is a Land Use Scholar at the Land Use Law Center and a Student Associate with the Food and Farm Business Law Clinic. He is a Productions Editor for the Pace Environmental Law Review, and he has published an article on Racial Impact Statements with the New York Zoning Law and Practice Report. He will begin his career practicing commercial real estate after law school.