

Gregor I. McGregor

McGregor Legere & Stevens, PC

Gregor I. McGregor is the founder of the Boston-based environmental law firm McGregor Legere & Stevens, PC (www.mcgregorlaw.com). The firm handles environmental law, land use, energy, climate, real estate matters, and related litigation. He also is a founding member of the international Environmental Law Network of similar specialty firms (www.elnonline.com).

Mr. McGregor's cases in court have broken new ground in environmental impact statements, wetland and floodplain protection, hazardous waste liability, land preservation and taxation, home rule powers for cities and towns, enforcement and contempt remedies, eminent domain, Article 97 and other open space protections, and the constitutional doctrine of "taking without compensation."

Prior to entering private practice in 1975, Mr. McGregor was an assistant attorney general and the first chief of the Division of Environmental Protection in Massachusetts.

Mr. McGregor is a cochair of Massachusetts Continuing Legal Education's annual Environmental, Land Use, and Energy Law Conference as well as MCLE's Real Estate and Environmental Law Curriculum Advisory Committee. Mr. McGregor received MCLE's Scholar-Mentor Award in 2013. He cochairs the Environmental Law Section of the Real Estate Bar Association for Massachusetts (REBA) and a member of REBA's Board of Directors. For over 25 years he presented the National CLE Conference seminar on Environmental Law, Land Use, Energy and Litigation in Vail and Aspen, Colorado.

Mr. McGregor is a graduate of Dartmouth College (A.B) and Harvard Law School (J.D).