Enterprise Community Partners, Inc.

Shelby O'Neill serves as Program Director for the national Building Resilient Futures program of Enterprise Community Partners, a national nonprofit committed to making home and community places of pride, power and belonging, and platforms for resilience and upward mobility for all. Shelby has worked with Enterprise Green Communities for seven years and currently leads the Green Communities certification program; the country's only national green building program designed by and for the affordable housing sector, and which is focused on moving the best practices in design and construction of healthy, sustainable, resilient homes to normal practices.

Before joining Enterprise in 2016, Shelby practiced architecture and design in Washington, D.C.
