Westchester County faces a severe housing shortage, which heavily impacts seniors, millennials, working families, people of color, and those with disabilities, and impedes our ability to grow the local economy, to combat climate change, and to promote racial justice.

Hear from experts about what our housing shortage looks like across the county, what caused it, what steps local electeds are taking to address it, and brainstorm what role all of us can play in being part of the solution!

DATE/TIME: Thursday, October 27 | 6:30 PM - 8:00 PM
VENUE: Judicial Institute at Pace Law School, 78 North Broadway, White Plains, NY (Omni Room - 2ND FL)

Register here: