FEATURING

Brad Zimmerman

Cory Kahaney

Brad Zimmerman is an actor/comedian with a unique and original voice in the world of comedy. Over the course of his career, Brad has opened for the famed Brad Garrett, George Carlin and Joan Rivers, who considered him one her great opening acts. Combining years of acting and stand up, Brad now performs in his own touring show "My Son The Waiter, A Jewish Tragedy," a hilarious and inspiring story about the grit and passion required to 'make it' as an artist.

Cory Kahaney, may be best known as a grand finalist on NBC's Last Comic Standing. Other TV appearances include The Late Show with David Letterman, CONAN and America's Got Talent. Cory produced & starred in the off-Broadway hit "The Jewish American Princesses of Comedy" and she is a regular in the touring company of Catskills on Broadway. Cory was named Best Comedian in NYC by Backstage Magazine and Best Comedienne by the Manhattan Association of Cabarets.

LIVE - STAND UP COMEDY- VIRTUAL

Settle in on your couch for this "mask free" event and be part of the community of support, while you sit back and enjoy some comedic relief from the new "norm". One virtual admission ticket let's you stream the event for everyone that's with you. No business or cocktail attire required, just come as you are, pj's, sweats, tiara... your choice. Order a pizza and beer, or make your own "apps" and cocktails to S.I.P with PWJC.
