Zoom Virtual Event

DRAFT Workshop Schedule

10:30am ET: Introductory Remarks by Professor Jason Czarnezki (Pace/Haub Law)

10:45-11:45am ET: “Navigating the Environmental Law Professor Job Market during the Pandemic”

Panel Discussion and Q&A with Professors TBD, TBD and TBD. Moderated by Professor TBD.

- How do I decide whether law teaching is for me?
- What is the best advice you have for someone on the law professor job market?
- Are there any special considerations about the environmental law teaching market?
- What factors should one consider when filling out the Faculty Appointments Register (FAR) form?
- What should one be doing now to prepare myself for the market and become the strongest registrant that he/she can be?
- How will schools conduct their hiring processes this year?
- How should one prepare for a virtual interview and job talk?

11:45am-12:45pm: Keynote Lunch Address by TBD

12:45-1pm: Short Break

1pm-2:30pm ET: Welcome Back and “Rapid-Fire” Job Talks (Session 1) over Lunch (Professor Jason Czarnezki)

In order to accommodate the overwhelming interest in this year’s workshop, we have given priority to candidates on the job market and in the AALS FAR this year. Each candidate is allocated 30 minutes total. Presentations will be 15-20 minutes and followed by 10-15 minutes of feedback from faculty.

4:15-5:30pm ET (3 Intervals at 4:15pm/4:40pm/5:05pm): Mock Interviews (Professor Jason Czarnezki)
Candidates and volunteer law professors will be assigned to breakout rooms. In the breakout rooms, faculty will serve as mock interviewers asking interview questions for 15 minutes for each candidate, followed by 10 minutes of feedback for each candidate. Interviewees should email their resume and FAR form to faculty in their breakout room.

Sample Job Interview Questions:
- Why do you want to be a law professor?
- Please identify the three/four courses that would constitute your ideal teaching package.
- What would be your style of teaching?
- Please briefly tell us about your job talk paper or topic.
- Please tell us about the next project or two in your research plan.
- Be prepared for any substantive questions about any of your published papers.
