Reminder: All law students seeking admission to the New York State (NYS) Bar after graduation must perform 50 hours of qualifying pro bono work. Like all components of the NYS Bar application, completion and certification of these pro bono hours is your responsibility. The Public Interest Law Center (PILC) is eager to help you understand the 50-hour requirement so that you can plan ahead and easily comply. The 50-hour requirement and accompanying information from the NYS Unified Court System is on their website. After reviewing the website, please email the PILC at publicinterest@law.pace.edu with any specific questions and continue to watch for email announcements from us.

All students must establish that they have acquired the skills and are familiar with the professional values necessary to competently practice law. See <https://www.nybarexam.org/Skills/skills.htm>.

The information on this form is true and correct to my knowledge. I acknowledge that I have read and understand the requirements for the awarding of the Juris Doctor Degree as listed in the Academic Rules and Policies, and that I am responsible for meeting those requirements.
